Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.4in.As the world has changed over the last thirty to forty years, some things havent, human greed, the desire for power and to rule others. Others have motives based on a religious fundamentalist belief in how the world and civilization should act and behave. The changing times often bring about strange alliances that under normal circumstances would be impossible to fathom. Nothing was further from the ideal of drug lords and cartels collaborating with religious fundamentalists to bring down the world and create a new one in their image. Each of the factions had goals, a purpose and a plan for what the world would become. The United States military had again, been stripped bare as the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan were behind them. It was made clear by those in power, Americas days as the worlds police officer was done. The United Nations had to step up and do its job. The United States would still have a force but now with less personnel, less resources and a considerably smaller budget. In spite of that, somehow the requirements, field operations and intelligence gathering hadnt changed. The CIA had its problems and the once strong allies of America had grown to trust the US less than ever before. Victor felt an adrenaline rush as his aircraft streaked across the international border at tree-top level, braving air defense batteries that were not there, in a fighter that was not armed. He had not been told that all the appropriate Syrians had been paid generous fees to look the other way. The incorrupt had been dealt with even less expensively. A conspiracy to cripple western commerce, a plot to end the...
