Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from History of the Ninth and Tenth Regiments Rhode Island Volunteers, and the Tenth Rhode Island Battery, in the Union Army in 1862 The following letter from Chaplain Clapp, of the Tenth, has been received since the completion of the history. On account of its general interest to the comrades, it is printed in this separate form to accompany the book. My Dear Spicer: I greatly rejoice in the new proof of their good sense which our comrades of the Ninth and Tenth Rhode Island have shown in selecting you as their historian, to make lasting record of our varied experiences in the days of the Rebellion. A glance, which you have kindly allowed me, at the proof sheets of your volume, more than satisfies, - it delights me, with the taste, discrimination, and truthfulness with which you have executed your delicate task. That you deserve well of us all, I know from personal observation, so far as your story of the campaign of the Tenth and our companion battery is concerned, and I cannot doubt...
