We commend our Missionary Superintendent most highly for his successful efforts at Greeley. CITY LINE, BROOKLYN Since the last meeting of Synod the Missionary Superintendent has retired from the Bronx, and taken up his headquarters at our Mission House at 287 Magenta Street, City Line, Brooklyn. A flourishing Sunday-school has been established, an active Ladies, Aid Society formed, and congregation organized and incorporated. The urgent need of the field is the securing of building lots, and the erection of a chapel. Rosedale ALE, L. 1. From the beginning our people at Rosedale have been greatly hindered in their work by the lack of a suitable place in which to worship, the only place available being the Chemical Engine House. With the approval of...
