By Louise Davidson

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . There is something magic about eating diner food. It makes us happy. and full! Now you can prepare the most iconic diner meals at home with authentic diner recipes. Your family and friends will love it! BLACK WHITE EDITION Nothing gets more American than American Diners. It has become the symbol of home, freedom, diversity and ingenuity. Despite the proliferation of fast food chains, the humble diner has retained its own character and identity. The American Diner has come a long way from the lunch wagons of the late 1800s to the prefabricated eateries that first catered to male workers but later opened their doors to women and eventually became a wholesome gathering spot for grandmas, grandpas, dads, moms and kids. The portions are generous and the prices are affordable. The menu options include both familiar comfort food and local specialties. You will never leave a diner feeling hungry, the menus are filled with choices of wholesome goodness that satisfies and makes you want to come back. The recipes here are just a sampling of the dishes we like to go...
