The New York Quarterly, Number 4

By -

New York Quarterly, United States, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Since its founding in 1969 by William Packard, The New York Quarterly has been devoted to excellence in the publication of a unique and fervent cross-section of contemporary American poetry regardless of school of thought, style, or genre. Our only concern is to focus on the craft that underlies effective poetry writing. The New York Quarterly features works by both known and emerging poets. The NYQ Craft Interviews present the views of some of our most outstanding poets on the general subjects of style, prosody and technique. The issues are rounded out with an essay or two on the subject of contemporary American poetry that is both accessible and meaningful to readers, poets, students, and teachers of poetry alike. NYQ 4 features a craft interview with Stanley Kunitz; an editorial about the NYQ Screening Committee procedures; The Chinese Poet in NY by Lucille Medwick; worksheets of original work by Anne Sexton; The School for Wives translated by Richard Wilbur; photos of Padgett, Zukofsky, Swenson, Thomas, Rothenberg and Garrigue; and poetry by Leo Connellan, John Tagliabue, Maryann...

Reviews

Without doubt, this is actually the best job by any publisher. It is written in basic phrases instead of difficult to understand. You will like the way the author publishes this publication.

The ebook is fantastic and great. I am quite late in starting reading this one, but better than never. Your life period will probably be converted as soon as you comprehensively read this ebook.
