Excerpt from Report on the American Slav Congress and Associated Organizations: June 26, 1949 The American Slav Congress is a Moscow-inspired and directed federation of Communist-dominated organizations seeking by methods of propaganda and pressure to subvert the 10,000,000 people in this country of Slavic birth or descent. By means of a nationalist appeal it strives to enlist our Slavic population in behalf of Russia's ambitious designs for world empire and simultaneously to incite American Slavs against the land of their adoption. It will be remembered that prior to and during World War II, Adolph Hitler and his agents flooded German-American communities with Pan-German propaganda emanating from Stuttgart and distributed through the German-American Bund and allied organizations. The American Slav Congress in its appeal to Pan-Slavism is a revival of the same technique on a far more dangerous scale, the extent and significance of which few Americans realize. It is an important weapon of Moscow's political warfare against the United States. Although its promoters claim that the American Slav Congress was organized to promote the cultural activity of the American Slavs, the real...

Reviews

It is one of the most popular publication. It is actually written in easy words instead of confusing. You will like how the author create this book.
-- Art Gislason

This is the very best publication we have read through right up until now. It is one of the most incredible book we have read through. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
