Finding Ourselves Unexpected Discoveries (Paperback)

By MR Robert Bottomley

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. In reading internet news or watching it on television, it seems all we hear is bad news. It gives a distorted view of the world as it seems rather sensational to pick the worst possible kinds of things happening and choosing from the entire world to make it look close to us. In reality we know from personal experience that there is much more good news in our lives than bad from birth to our current age. It is what keeps us going with hope for the present and future through our families, grand children, work places, schools, etc. For that reason I have written a self-help book for the average person of this world to show how normal day to day happenings in our very average lives have much good in them and even further discoveries upon examination that further give reason to have hope for now and the future. I write about events in my life, as best recalled, that in most cases are close to events in your life. I hope the way I write it will enrich...
