

Money Moxie: How to Transcend the Paradox of Privilege Liberate Your True Worth (Paperback)

By Valery Satterwhite

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . I felt re-energized. Just a little love goes a long way. - Joey Pantoliano (Joey Pants), Actor, Founder of There is an underserved and misunderstood phenomenon amongst the wealthy in that they often pay a heavy emotional, and sometimes physical, price for such privilege. What makes matters even more difficult to deal with is the lack of compassion by the masses for the very real struggles of the upper classes. In a world where more is better and the any challenge is rooted in not having enough, as well as the materialism it delivers, having more fails to provide any real solace. In this provocative and controversial book, personal growth expert and sports psychology coach Valery Satterwhite examines how our relationship with money can bankrupt our greatest asset - our true selves. Reared in an affluent household where money and its symbol of power mattered more than the people within it, Valery, like others raised with wealth, struggled with its adverse effects until she discovered true wealth is an inside job. Through personal stories, client stories and pearls of...
