Of Mr. Yancey What was the result of the congressional elections in 1847 of the State election CHAPTER XXV. ADMINISTRATION OF GOVERNOR CHATMAN. Governor Chapman was born in Virginia in 1802, and came to Alabama in 1824. He served one term in the State Senate, and was in Congress from 1835 until his election as governor. His administration was largely concerned with the winding up of the Bank's affairs; and in careful guardianship of the State's financial interests he proved himself a worthy successor to Governor Martin. He performed the duties of his office with high ability strengthened by long experience in public affairs. The bank commissioners this year gave such a clear and satisfactory account of the work they had been doing that the legislature formally recognized their services. The final step in the affairs of the bank was taken in 1847 by an act making Francis Strother Lyon sole commissioner and trustee, with power to deal with all debtors. From this time everything relating to the bank was left in his hands. In discharging the duties imposed upon him he rendered perhaps the most valuable financial service, the State has ever received, and left the debt incurred through the bank as small as it could honorably be made. With this change in the commission, Clement C. Clay finished his long career in the public service, though he lived many years afterwards. The bank had now ceased to have any important place...
