Not illustrated. 1904 Excerpt: . . . classification of accounts, and the interesting papers read and discussed, spoke well for the future success of the association. At the first annual meeting, held at Niagara Falls, October 19 to 22, 1897, we were officially recognized and welcomed by the American Street Railway Association, and their organization passed resolutions of endorsement and approval, and pedged a cordial encouragement and support. At this meeting a standing committee was appointed on a Standard System of Street Railway Accounting. This committee was composed of Messrs. C. N. Duffy, H. L. Wilson, J. F. Calderwood, W. F. Ham and H. J. Davies, and while you all know how satisfactorily they prepared their arduous task, I do not think that those who were not in immediate touch with these gentlemen quite appreciate what a tremendous amount of self-sacrificing work has been done by that committee; not the work of a day or a month, but of years, and I feel that I am voicing the sentiments of all when I say that their efforts have the deep and grateful thanks of every member of the association. It was at this first annual meeting that a suggestion was made by Mr. Bartlett, Treasurer of the Manchester Street Railway Company, that the form of report and accounts should be taken up with the State Railroad Commissioners, and the matter was at once taken into consideration by the Committee on Standardization of Accounts, and later on taken up by them with the association...
