That 600 billion remaining unified surplus would be cut in half if CBO is right and you are wrong. That is why we had to be concerned about it. There is not much forgiveness left in the budget. There is also no provision in your budget for providing payment adjustments even though MedPAC has recommended a series of them. Mr. Thomas wrote you a letter about 3 weeks ago. I would like to repeat the last paragraph because we would like your responses to the extent you are ready to provide them. Mr. Thomas concludes his letter about the administrations Medicare budget and about the provisions it does not make for provider payment adjustments as recommended by the MedPAC Commission and he ends with these questions which he put to you in the letter dated February 8. Does the administration believe Congress should address any of the problems identified by the MedPAC list, and he attaches the list, that comes to...
