Excerpt: .be Loving, patient, strong and free; Some day I will braver grow, Greater love and mercy show; Some day, some day, I ll be strong; Some day triumph over wrong. Loving father of us all, Take our failures as they fall, Gather up our someday dreams, Plant them by thy heavenly streams; Judge us only by the good Of our inner angelhood. MADAME LA COMTESSE MATHIEU DE NOAILLES ROM vivid canvas, from this pictured face, -L This woman of an alien land and race, Whose dark-rimmed eyes, whose mouth s illusive line. Proclaim her lineage of spirit mine, I see myself look forth, as from a glass; Our mirrored image flashes as we pass. When on the shore we stand and hear the sea, In reiterative insistency, Chanting its song, each forming, nimbused crest, Rising and falling in a vague unrest, Repeats the ocean....
