Magic Theater Books. Paperback. Condition: New. 234 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.5in. What do seashells, obesity, graffiti, and the American ghetto have in common? Nude hot springs and the Japanese theater. Atheists and family-values conservatives. Why do atheists go on religious pilgrimages? How have schools infantilized our understanding of Shakespeare, and the textbook industry conspired to turn our languages history into agitprop? What is the single most dangerous sexual idea that even the liberated cant handle? Ranging across centuries and continents, Isham Cooks far-flung essays, whether discoursing on the most radical or homespun of topics, are guided by the notion of the edge. The edge represents the limits of conventional understanding, the zone beyond stereotypes and groupthink; it is where received ideas are recast in fresh and striking ways. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
