Excerpt from Prosperity and Politics But I used to be about as red-hot a Republican as he is when I was a young fellow. I grew up a Republic I served through the war as a Republican. I voted for Lincoln in 1864, and for Grant in 1868 and 1872. But the party isn't what it used to be. It isn't the party of the toilers any longer, and I haven't confidence in its leaders - that's the reason I joined the Populists.
