A Prologue and Dream It is a dangerous, but agreeable, game to play the prophet, perhaps unwise; but while admitting that, I am going to do so, not because I feel sure, but because I want to sift my own thoughts. I may be told why not do so in private? I ve done that already. Probably it does not matter what an old man says, He is a weather beaten block waiting for axe or fire. Whatever Ideals are mine, there are few which are in agreement with the fashion of to-day. Still I am capable of looking forward. I ve looked back a great deal in my life, and been a humble student of Cause and Effect. Young enough to believe, even though it lies distant from hence, in Utopia, and I make bold to say so. I still believe in the human race. I still believe in a capacity for repentance and change of direction from bad to a better state of things. It is likely that the...
