Excerpt from Addresses Delivered at the Annual Meeting of the Ohio State Board of Agriculture: Columbus, January 10 and 11, 1912 At our annual meeting it is customary for the President to make an address, stating the condition of affairs pertaining to past and present work of the State Board of Agriculture. The President would not be able to do this except for the kindness and help of the Secretary. I have asked the Honorable A. P. Sandles, our very efficient Secretary, who has at his comand the data of all work of our Board, to briefly outline what we are attempting in the interest of agriculture. He is an inveterate as well as an earnest worker; has the interest of the farmers at heart; and has kindly consented to prepare and present a statement which will be much more to the point than I can make. He understands the business and is today one of the best State Fair Secretaries in the United States, is all wool and a yard wide. It is a pleasure for any Board to have the services of such a Secretary. Close attention paid to his remarks will inform this convention of our work. With the assistance and advice of the farmers friend, Governor Harmon, A. P. Sandles and other broad minded men, agriculture has made rapid strides, and today the farmer need not take a back seat. He is not called the Old Hay Seed, but a man of affairs with a profession second to none. The successful farmer, and all can be successful (as the word can t should not be in the farmer s dictionary) should and does feel that his calling...
