As violence continues in neighboring Mexico, our communities feel the impact across the Rio Grande, the narrow river that connects our two nations. 2010 has reached a boiling point as turf wars and gunfire unfold just minutes from our neighborhoods, and American families dont travel to Mexico as frequently as they did, and now Mexicans fear traversing the Mexican border towns to enter the United States. Since January alone, just miles from my district in neighboring Mexico, we have seen two consulates forced to be closed and reopened, two USDA livestock inspection sites in Mexico closed, then reopened on the U. S. side because they dont want to send their personnel across the river, most about drug-related shootings, pirates intimidating American boaters on the Falcon Lake and other activities that have disrupted the lives of U. S. citizens. These are types...
