A painter with a vivid imagination, Cosima has always been creative and a free thinker. Now it appears she's lost control of her mind. Or has she? At the suggestion of her police lieutenant husband, Cosima agrees to seek help at Logan Flats, a sanctuary for troubled women. Once she's out in the New Mexico desert, however, she discovers she is not free to leave. In fact, she no longer has control of her own life. Fortunately, she's got a new friend, the handsome rancher Jeremiah North. Does he believe there's nothing wrong with her? Will he help her get her life back? Does she even want that life anymore? A romantic thriller, Desert Lights grabs readers by the throat and does not let go. The seductive story of love, sanity, and betrayal will remind readers of Gaslighting and Girl, Interrupted.
