General Accounting Office, 1999. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)43845957 Subject: Computer industry -- Government policy -- United States. Excerpt: . . . B-283584 objections to NDAA notifications by interviewing agency officials, reviewing their files on the objections, and reviewing the types of end-users and end-uses. Further, using data from the Commerce Department export control database, we determined the reasons why licenses were returned without action and denied. In addition, we determined whether the executive branch is requiring licenses on end-users that previously received HPC exports without a license. We compared data on unlicensed exports to tier 3 countries from January 1, 1996, to September 30, 1997, with NDAA notifications that required a license from February 3, 1998, to March 19, 1999. To assess how the Commerce Department is carrying out the requirement to conduct post-shipment verifications on all HPC exports to tier 3 countries, we interviewed Commerce officials to discuss the various methods they use to conduct PSVs and how they assess their results. We also reviewed Commerce guidelines for conducting PSVs...
