Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Brooklyn Robinson is a bright and articulate African American woman, who grew up in a poor household. Her parents divorced shortly before she was born, leaving her mother to raise she and her brother. Her brother became an abusive alcoholic and was feared by both she and her mother. He was later killed in an accident. When her mother died from cancer, Brooklyn was left terribly alone. Through sheer determination she earned her Ph.D in Psychology. She left her small home town to start a new life in California. There she secured a teaching job at a university near Los Angeles. She meets gorgeous, sexy, millionaire, lawyer and model Tristan Alexander who takes her breath away. They are immediately attracted to each other however, Brooklyn is hesitant to become involved in a biracial relationship. Tristan is persistent in pursuit of her, and Brooklyn finds that she cannot and does not want fight her feelings for him. Together they will come face to face with their own personal demons. Brooklyn will have to share her past, and Tristan s world will...
