Excerpt from Chautauqua County Schools and Education, 1802-1902 Centennial Poem By Forrest Crissey. A hundred years - how brief a span! In which to work the magic change From wilderness and savage man To fruitful field and purpling grange! Where now the lakeward-looking hills Are wreathed in vines of goodly fame, The Red Man fished the lakes and rills, And ranged the forest for his game. He pitched his summer lodge where now The schoolhouse stands, with flying flag; And where the vineyards crown the brow Of every hill he chased the stag. His bruitish war-cry echoed wild From every slope, in every dell, Where now resound the echoes mild Of sacred song and Sabbath bell. In hideous dance and savage game He gathered at the wood-fringed shore Which links Chautauqua's storied name, With Learning, Art and ripest lore. Where e'er the toiling student lights His solitary lamp and gives To Learnings court his zealous nights The fame of old Chautauqua lives! A million clusters load the vines Beneath blue Eries misty wing; But better than her rarest wines, Chautauqua's larger gift I sing: Her pioneers - a noble seed From which a harvest rich and great Of sturdy sons hath sprung to feed The...
