Of Austria, are these doleful, accusing words Here lies a monarch who with the best of intentions never carried out a single plan. It was the one great dream of Columbus that brought him after many weary days in sight of the land that was new; one magnificent idea that haunted Cyrus Field till continent was linked with continent one foolish thought that made Palissy sacrifice home and comfort and reputation to the discovery of the secret of pottery and enamel; one dream of a madman that turned William Cary from a cobbler s bench in Scotland to the throne of scholarship, reformation and Christian consecration and zeal in darkened India. Lord Macauley writes that one summer day the boy Warren Hastings, then just seven years old, lay on the bank of the rivulet which flows through the old domain of his house to join the Isis. There, as three score and ten years later he told the tale, rose in his mind a scheme, which, through all the turns of his eventful career, was never abandoned. He would recover the estate which belonged to his fathers. He would be Hastings of Daylesford. This purpose formed in infancy and poverty grew stronger as his intellect expanded and as his fortunes rose. He pursued his plan with that calm but indomitable force of will which was the most striking peculiarity of his character. When under a tropical sun he ruled fifty millions of Asiatics his hopes amidst all the cares of wars, finance and...
