Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Nicholas SOgard , the author of Architect of My Own Rise reveals some secrets about himself and his book: I ll take you through a long and contradictory series of thoughts. Some might make sense, others not, some might please you, some might irritate the shit out of you, but I for one, would never read a book on how a 25-year old guy sees the world, what are his internal endeavors, and, most importantly, how he deals with them. Now, a little background about myself, and, then, we ll get down to business. So, I m 26, and I m fucked up. I come from a small city in Romania (yes, Dracula s country, and yes, I m from Transylvania), and I moved to a bigger city - Cluj-Napoca (you might know it as little Silicon Valley, the area where Electric Castle - it actually takes place near Cluj-Napoca - or Untold festivals take place). Ever since I was just a toddler, I had a gift of tearing things apart, breaking stuff, and never really putting them back together. But the one thing I was good at, and probably I m still good at it, is that I love seeing people smile, I love bringing them a smile on their faces. It brings me pleasure to make as many people as I can, for a moment, forget about their problems, and have a good time in my company. Another thing I was fascinated about, and still am, are probabilities. Small confession, I m not really good at math, or retaining formulas and stuff, but my brain goes wild with probabilities. Whenever I go on dates, for example, and we run...
