RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 124 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.3in. This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1916 Excerpt: . . . all the galleries, with brief descriptions of their contents and directions how to reach them from either the Huntington Avenue Entrance Hall or the Rotunda at the head of the main stairway. The stencilled Inserts issued with the Guide to bring its information up to the date of sale are also twice their former size, to permit of giving plans of the ground floor as well as the main floor. The plans contain the names of the galleries and offices as listed in the printed pages. The Inserts aim to record all important changes of exhibition since the Guide was printed and to give other current information as space permits. The purpose of the Guide is to remain available to the visitor at a nominal cost a complete outline of all that the Museum offers from day to day. It is planned to meet the needs at once of those visitors who come at long intervals for a tour of the building and of those who come more often with special interests. MRS. HENRI LEON BERGER (Miss Florence V. Paull), long Assistant in Charge of the Collections of Western Art at the Museum (excepting the Collection of Textiles), has been appointed General Curator of the Wadsworth Athenaeum, Hartford, Connecticut. The Wadsworth Athenaeum was erected in 1842 to house the Public Library of Hartford (then the Young Men's Institute) and the Connecticut Historical Society, as well as a collection of objects of art. The building has been...
