

Better Than Average Goals: Jonathan McMillan s Guide to Setting Achieving Goals That Change and Save Lives (Paperback)

By MR Jonathan McMillan

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . I can honestly say, and to many people s surprise, that going to prison was one of the best things to happen to me. While separated from any opportunity to be productive or any possibility to contribute to my family, I began to really understand the cliché Failing to plan is planning to fail. I finally realized that the absence of any goals or direction or ambition in my life was what directly lead to me landing squarely on the shore of the Island of Failure. It was after this epiphany that I began to study respected names in personal development and success skills, like Napoleon Hill, Jim Rohn, Brian Tracy, Zig Ziglar, Les Brown, Tony Robbins and many more. I applied their lessons and saw immediate and long-lasting changes in my life, including never returning to prison despite the high recidivism rate that plagues our country. In order to live a better than average life, it is important that you continually set significant goals. It is important that you continually set Better Than Average goals. This book provides...
