

Thehill: A Boss Corbu Novel (Paperback)

By Mr P E Ellenbogen

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Boss Corbu is a practicing architect in a burgeoning urban environment - a small fish in a big pond. Over the years, he has morphed from a sole practitioner; adding staff to take on many of the specialized responsibilities necessary to move projects to fruition. He is obsessed - mistakes are to be avoided at all costs - his paranoia concerning payroll and paying offices expenses is always with him. He lives modestly - spare time is taken up with female, friends - a local diner is his hangout. Each member of this staff has an individual persona - he needs to oversee the formation of a family, from these men and women of a myriad of backgrounds, who will need to work in harmony and look out for each other and himself. In recent times, several new projects, beyond his normal scope, have been thrust upon him by a mysterious consortium and he is soon swimming with the sharks. With the new work comes the realization that greed, mixed with other inexplicable motives, is destroying his world. Life s joys...
