

Extra Credit Epidemic

By Nina Post

Curiosity Quills Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 214 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.9in. x 0.6in. Praise for Extra Credit Epidemic: Extra Credit Epidemic, Posts first foray into YA, is, without a doubt, her best book. The plot is tighter, the characterization richer and the humor funnier than anything shes ever written. The book is aimed at a YA audience, but should be required reading for one and all. - David J. Peterson I really loved the growth that Taffy showed through the course of the book, and the strong team she built with Taylor, Gabe, and Van. - K. Sozaeva About the book: When a brilliant yet reclusive high school student uncovers a small cluster of foodborne infections, she teams up with a former state epidemiologist turned science teacher to investigate, but as the cases start to multiply, she realizes that shell need more than just her sharp intellect to find the source of the outbreak. Taffy Snackerge is a high school senior who likes doing things her way. Gifted in science, shed rather analyze infectious diseases and pick up a girl for the occasional fling than deal with her boring schoolwork or the high school social scene. When she notices a...
