Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Forty-Second Annual Report of the Secretary of the State Horticultural Society of Michigan for the Year 1912 The year That has gone by has been one where many of us have met our Waterloo and I feel sometimes as though in many respects we have been a failure in another way. Personally I feel that way, and especially as by my advice a good many in years past have been induced to go into the apple business and today they are plying me with questions and advice as to how they can get out of the orchard business what they were to believe was in it but which they have been unable to secure. This past year they have raised their apples; they have got fruit but there are no buyers in the field, and they do not know what to do with their products. This is not the condition that is peculiar to our own state alone, it is general. Orchardists of other states have met with the same difficult I cannot believe that...
