AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2005. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Teachers Guide. 223 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .What Does a Child Do When he is Disappointed? What Does He do when He Fails? And How Do You React as a Parent? Julia M. Hayes, a master teacher, has built a strong relationship with thousands of parents, students, teachers and educators, for many years. She has learned that it takes self-motivation, life skills, interest, prayer, patience, persistence, perseverance, good commonsense, and a sense of humor to meet the needs of every child. She has spent many years striving to master those goals by helping students reach their maximum potential and enabled them to utilize their capabilities to be the best. One of her major concerns was how to deal with children who portray Bad Behavior, She understands that teaching children who consistently exemplify Bad Behavior is not only challenging, but also rewarding once those behaviors are changed to positives. She would set goals each year to find different strategies to enhance positive behavior. And because of her persistence those strategies have changed many students lives, Julia Hayes gives of herself. She realizes that there is power in teaching with love, prayer, compassion and finding your niche with every child individually. She spent a lot of time teaching her students how to be respectful to everyone and geared her teaching strategies and lesson plans to always improve self-discipline. She believes that parents should be ultimately responsible for their children s actions, no matter where they are, but the teacher has to be the second professional role model in a child s life while he is in school.
