The BLESSED LIFE should be the normal life of every Christian -- in work and rest, in the building up of the inner life, and in the working out of the life-plan. It is God s thought not for a few, but for all His children. The youngest and weakest may lay claim to it equally with the strongest and oldest. We should step into it at the moment of conversion without wandering with blistered feet for forty years in the desert, or lying for thirty-eight years, with disappointed hopes, in the porch of the House of Mercy. -F.B.
