ANIMAL LIFE AND HUMAN PROGRESS (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This volume is the outcome of a series of public lectures organized by Prof. Dendy at King's College, London, in 1917-18 under the auspices of the Imperial Studies Committee of the University of London. The object of the course was to inform the public regarding zoological results already applied in furtherance of human progress, and to emphasize the claims of zoological science to recognition on terms of equality with other departments of learning. The college and the editor are to be congratulated, not only on their courage and public spirit in having, during the dark days of the war, arranged a course which makes so much for enlightenment and for reconstruction, but also on having made the subject-matter accessible to all through the medium of this volume. The lectures are most informing, and if we express regret at the absence of consistently full citation of the authors quoted, this is done in tribute to their permanent value. Prof. Dendy contributes the preface and an opening lecture on Man's Account with the Lower Animals. To the weighty material items in that account he adds the pregnant idea that much of our aesthetic sense is founded on insect aesthesis, since the marvelous forms, colors, and fragrances of flowers arose in the course of evolution in response to what we may fairly call the tastes of insects long before man appeared on the scene. Prof. Bourne adds a thoughtful essay on Some Educational and Moral Aspects of Zoology. Prof. A. Thomson writes with his usual vivid grace and wealth of illustration on Man and the Web of Life. Mr. Tate Regan discusses Museums and Research, incidentally putting in a strong plea for the view...
