

Golden Wings and Other Stories about Birders and Birding (Paperback)

By Pete Dunne

University of Texas Press, United States, 2003. Paperback. Condition: New. New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Dubbed the Bard of America's Bird-Watchers by the Wall Street Journal, Pete Dunne knows birders and birding-instinctively and completely. He understands the compulsion that drives other birders to go out at first light, whatever the weather, for a chance to maybe, just maybe, glimpse that rare migrant that someone might have spotted in a patch of woods the day before yesterday. And yet, he also knows how . . . well . . . strange the birding obsession becomes when viewed through the eyes of a nonbirder. His dual perspective-totally engrossed in birding, yet still aware of the odd birdness of some birders-makes reading his essays a pure pleasure whether you pursue the feather quest or not. This book collects forty-one of Dunne's recent essays, drawn from his columns in Living Bird, Wild Bird News, the New Jersey Sunday section of the New York Times, Birder's World, and other publications. Written with his signature wit and insight, they cover everything from a moment of awed communion with a Wandering Albatross (the most beautiful thing I d ever seen)...
