Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .ETOPIA, is the authors vision as to what constitutes the perfect or ideal society. In his new publication he addresses the various economical, social and political issues which are plaguing modern society. The purpose for the publishing of the publication, is to reflect upon those measures which are necessary and essential, which must be implemented within society, if society is ever to achieve and thus make possible the creating of a truly free and perfect world for all mankind. free from state suppression and tyranny, attributes of all variants of state institutions rather they be limited or centralised. One of such measures being first the abolishing from all societies of the world that illegal and criminal institution and symbol of collective subordination and servitude (Government), and thus in its stead to instill in all societies of the world a Universal free system,a system of man. Whereby within its center lies not the faceless collective masses, which are nothing more then the unconditional subordinates and thus slaves to that illegal and criminal entity.The state. But rather, the independent minded and willed self sufficient individual, who lives in a society whereby precedence is given not to the shallow and excessive pursuits and hoarding of worldly materialistic wealth and possessions. But rather on acquiring and achieving those things in life which are essential and necessary in the preserving and thus maintaining of a peaceful and mutually prosperous life for all individuals within society cooperatively not Collectively.
