(j) What of the possibilities of fully developed readings and conference methods in this field? Successful examples of problem or readings methods are so few that parallel examples are hardly yet available. But close analytical study of certain objectives, and of the adaptation of these methods to serving them, seem to promise rich results. (ft) Community civics as based partly upon a flexible reading text and partly upon observational access to, and partial interpretations of, local situations, has apparently proven functional for grades four to seven. Is it a good method beyond? Will it serve large group objectives? (J) The time is ripe for careful study of results in adult civic behavior of scouting...
