A young girl is sent from Aleppo, Syria to carry out acts of terrorism in Europe. To aid her in her task she is given a small, but dedicated cadre of committed Jihadists. Jack Travers, now middle-management with British SIS, continues to run his band of Special Service warriors fighting Isil in Iraq and Syria. Together with Pierre Rahua, his old friend from DGSE and Joseph Merrimen III CIA, the plot is uncovered and attempts made to stop the jihadists plans before they can be brought to fruition. A Bulgarian crime boss, his Iraqi accomplice and a bent copper from UK CID are also instrumental in trying to put a lid on the activities of the terrorists. The plot, to blow up the Eurotunnel, the connection between France and England, must be stopped at all costs. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
