Excerpt from Millenarian Views: With Reasons for Receiving Them, to Which Is Added a Discourse on the Fact and Nature of Resurrection These are indeed not vain things they are our life. They are the corner stones - the foundation, which, if removed, the superstructure must fall, however imposing, with all its top-stones of ornament and beauty. If in the cross and its associated doctrines there is agree ment, and all are truly united to Christ by a living and a life giving faith, we are fellow-heirs of the kingdom prepared from the foundation of the world, though some are mistaken in regard to its nature and manifold results.
