Brand New Book. Excerpt from Thanksgiving and Retrospect: An Address to the Students of Queen s by the Principal, on January 6th, 1902, in the Convocation Hall of the University My second fundamental political principle ?owed from the first. For the good of Canada and its own and the world s good, the British Empire must form an e? ctive union. Here toodifiicul ties which seem to pessimists insuperable present themselves, for the nobler the organism the more formidable its enemies and dangers. All life is a battle, but only in overcoming these is character formed and life made complete. Separated from Britain, Canada would necessarily be always dependent on the United States, and wishing to honour and admire our neighbors - as well we may - we must meet them as equals. But, we shall be their equals, only when we share the burdens and responsibilities as well as the privileges and glory ofthe Empire. It may take long to bring this about, although it has come so much nearer of late that you, young men, need not despair of seeing the full realization of the glorious ideal. At the present moment our position is not one to be proud of. From a wan - to the justice of which our Parliament had unnecessarily pledged itself, while both sides were engaged in peaceful negotiations the justice of which has been repeatedly affirmed by the Prime Minister and Parliament; and in which we took active part enthusiastically at the outset, - we have quietly withdrawn, leaving the enormous cost in blood and treas ure to be borne by the senior partner....
