Little Spruce Productions, United States, 1991. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The Littlest Spruce tells the story of a little spruce tree that gets separated from his parents when they are taken away from the forest. But thanks to two silly field mice and a boy named Roy, the littlest spruce is reunited with his parents on Christmas Day inside Roy s home. First published in 1991, The Littlest Spruce won Best New Children s Book at the North American Book Exchange. It was also featured on ABC s Good Morning America. Then director of Good Morning America, Bob McKinnon, said, I was always told that big things come in the littlest packages. After reading The Littlest Spruce, I now know why. Succinct, clever writing and colorful illustrations make if a perfect package for the big and little alike. Written in metered poetry, The Littlest Spruce is a feel-good story that doesn t dwell on the commercialism of Christmas, instead, focuses on the importance of family values.
