Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Annual Report of the School Committee of the City of Charlestown: December, 1852 During the past year the Board voted to establish an in termediate school. It is sometimes the case that pupils of eight or ten years of age in the primary schools, who come from abroad without previous school advantages, and others from neglect or absence, are unable to keep up with their class but are too old to attend the primary schools and too little qualified to enter the grammar schools. It is the object of this school to receive such pupils, and qualify them for the grammar schools. This school will be kept in the new building on Winthrop street. With this exception, there has been no change of the organigation of the schools. As this school has not yet been Opened, there are now but three grades of schools, the Primartrammr, and High Schools twenty-seven primaries, eight grammar schools, and one high school. At the close of the October term, there were 2029 pupils in the primaries, 108 more, than in 1851 1330 pupils in the...
