Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Charter and Ordinances of the Borough of Sunbury: With the Provisions of the Constitution and General Laws of the State Relating to Boroughes, and the by-Laws and Rules of Order of the Town Council The laws are arranged chronologically, the full text being given in each instance. This is done for the double purpose of presenting a historical view of the legislation for the borough and to enable the reader to ascertain, with the least difficulty, just what laws were in force at any date. Where tho provisions of any law have been modified by subsequent enactment, or have been supplied by a general law, these facts are set out in foot notes. The provisions of the Constitution of 1873, relative to boroughes and all general laws relating to municipal government enacted since then have been inserted, so as to make this book a digest of Sunbury borough law. In compiling the ordinances, the book published in 1855 and the written ordinance book of the council have been used as guides, as far as possible, verifying them by the minute books; and the compiler would acknowledge the assistance he has received in this part of his work from the very efficient town clerk, Mr. Lewis D.
