

For A Price

By Patrena Miller

Paperback. Condition: New. 141 pages. A love that is built on friendship has been tried at the hands of a corruption, jealous, and devious roommate. Interfering in forbidden areas, lust escapes and deceitfulness manage to slew a lover. Will Charlene hold on to her lover of many years Will Zeta bad morals and manners taint a friendship Can love influence enough authority to sway personal gain Wondering what a mistrustful roommate might do next, Charlene is forced to take a stand. Finding her inner strength to fight, she is at the brink of self destruction. Learning to love herself is the first lesson but will she move beyond the terror of vicious strikes that continue to batter her. Never imagining life to be this way, Charlene leans on her friends and a male stripper to help her survive. For A Price is intense and it opens the eyes of the reader, placing them directly in the life of Charlene; a young lady whose journey had odds stacked up against her, but with the help of friends she made it through. Patrena Miller has effectively met the standards of being an author; this novel will keep your attention and it will...
