Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Alex Stihl, notorious rocker, known for food fights, guitar wars, and riots, found love on the road with wild-child Brighton Holmes, eventually calming his alcohol-infused mayhem. At the end of his band's summer tour, he wants nothing more than to spend a few quiet weeks by the sea with his guitar and his girl. When he discovers her reluctance to visit is because her mom faces a health crisis, his attention turns to his own mother who split when he was born, leaving him cracked with insecurity and anger. After Brighton relents and books a ticket to the UK, Alex gives her a tour of the London her late father knew, splintering her old grief. Their trip to see his grave brings relief, and a week spent in Alex's hometown in Scotland, draws out mischief. All the while, paparazzi harass them, culminating in a frenzied night when Alex says goodbye to his dying mother, an impromptu performance at a rock club, and band-member Finn revealing he's taken up with Alex's crazy ex-girlfriend, and then quits the band. When Brighton...
