Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Brothers that love each other are a force to be reckoned with It s one of the oldest and most complicated relationships going back to The Bible and still relevant today How can brothers just get along? There s so much potential in the relationship between brothers. Brothers can achieve great things together. But, with this power and potential for good lies the potential for disaster too. Hatred between brothers can be toxic and can tear apart a family for generations. If you re a parent of boys it s imperative that you do everything in your power to make sure your boys in your family get along and are on the same team. You don t want a strained relationship between brothers causing problems in the family. So, how do you do it? How This Book Can Help You This book explores the relationship between brothers from the perspective of a parent raising boys. Starting from when boys are young, learn why boys fight and how small issues should be solved early on to prevent massive issues down the road. For parents of boys, this book helps you raise your boys so they get along with and love each other. For adults with brothers, this book helps you reflect on your past and understand the reasons why events from your childhood have impacted the relationship you have with your brother. This book explains the reasons why brothers fight, and then provides actionable tips, tactics, and strategies to use in order to bring brothers together. Brothers can do great things - use this book to help you discover ways of bringing out the full potential and power of brothers united.
