Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.As the new millennium has come, there s also a new lifestyle and family that arises and is growing stronger everyday. Hate the style is about the events that have become common in the world, same sex marriages and families, and couples loving each other and making a living just as others do who are judgmental of the situation. This story entails the trials and tribulations of same sex couples of the new age. Julie Marshall is a dominate lesbian female going through many situations that leave her life confused and disarrayed. Her friends relationships are about to make a 360 turn and Julie finds herself smack dab in the middle of it. This is all in addition to her dealing with her employment situation, her girlfriends situation with the father of her child, and a dilemma within herself. In the end, the ups and downs of love takes us through confusion, deception, and a bit of violence. When all things done in the dark are definitely brought to the light, does Julie Marshall finally get the break she deserves and...
