She asked him to what she owed the honor of his call, as he must have known that to her all these questions were a matter of absolute indifference. He was a little taken aback, but he said to her that the truth was he had not come at his own wish at all, but that God had literally obliged him to come, and he said, What I have to say to you is very brief; it is only this, God has need of you. She looked colder and haughtier than ever, and he was obliged to beat a retreat. But only a very few days had gone before there came from this lady a letter asking him to go to her at her house at his own time. He went with some May 13. Jesus At The Pharisee s House. 181 misgiving, but she received him in a very altered mood. She said to him, I have not been able to get rid of the words you spoke to me, and I wish you would explain to me what you mean by Christianity. He explained it to her, and her mind received the truth as it was told, and I understand that to-day she is an earnest and faithful Christian.--Robert F. Horton, D.D. Jesus Washing Disciples Feet.--Jesus clothes himself with the commandments, and each is transfigured into a grace. He illustrates his decalogue in the washing of feet, and compels his disciples to follow...
