

Practical Hints on Painting, Composition, Landscape, and Etching (Paperback)

By Henry F W Ganz

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . An excerpt from the beginning of the INTRODUCTION: IN a practical treatise it is not possible to touch in any but the most superficial way on the theories and traditions of the Old Masters. Yet it must be remembered that apart from the interest that is awakened in the student by the attention being drawn to fine works of art, a sense of Taste is thereby cultivated which will materially help his progress in learning painting, while the sight of beautiful statues and pictures of the great Masters will lead him to try and trace the methods by which Art has been practised and perfected in former periods. One fact which will be observed is, that there is a scientific basis to the study of Art, and another that Art was taught on a classical tradition from master to pupil in the early days. The result was that certain schools were founded - schools in which the several artists chose in common either the same method of painting or a similar point of view in looking at a subject. In drawing the...
