Not illustrated. 1879 Excerpt: .an extraordinary degree of development that no human being, however carefully trained, can compete with them. The cashier ape puts into his mouth each coin presented to him in business payments, and tests it with grave deliberation. If it be genuine, he hands it to his master; if counterfeit, he sets it down before him with a solemn grimace of displeasure. His method of testing is regarded in commercial circles as infallible. EIGHT PER CENT. PER MONTH. A singular instance of human credulity is reported from Munich. The actress, Adele Spitzeder, who was sentenced there about six years ago to a term of imprisonment for having swindled the public out of many millions by her banking institution, the Dachauer Banken, conducted, as she asserted, for the furtherance of the interests of the Roman Catholic religion, tried again after her liberation from prison to earn a living on the stage. Finding that this could not be done, she has returned to Munich and again opened a bank. Deposits, on which she pays eight per cent. monthly interest, are brought to her in abundance, and, of course, another catastrophe will occur in time. FIAT MONEY. During the fierce and universal discussion of the unlimited greenback question, which so recently disturbed everybody, the absurdities of an unredeemable currency were well put in a few tons of Fiat Money. We have heard of no banks issuing that particular kind of money, but some thousands of people were earnest advocates of...
