Tripping on Woodstock is an existential experience of a time traveling romp back to that counter-cultural turning point, Woodstock 1969. Abducted from the present, Paul Stewart is given an insiders glimpse into a time travelers sub-culture, he never knew existed. From the roguish time traveler Shawn and his friends, Paul learns an often overlooked fact about time travelers; they dont only come from the future. And even as peaceful as Woodstock 1969 was, it turns out to be one of those touchstone events that attract time travelers from myriad eras, even those who see each other as enemies in a time war threatening to unravel the very fiber of space and time. As Paul finds himself embroiled in the tangle of time and the play of various alternate time lines, he doubts if hell ever be able to simply return to his own time and place. Then youll follow Paul Stewart on his next temporally discontinuous incident in the bonus short, Across From the Grassy Knoll. First in the Time Tripping Series, Tripping on Woodstock, and the bonus short, Across From the Grassy Knoll introduces you to the point of view character, Paul Stewart, and a growing cast of time travelers. Based on a dream I had, while writing Tripping on Woodstock, I wrote the short piece of flash fiction, which is not long enough to consider a sequel, but it does follow this story as the next temporal adventure of Paul Stewart. I considered including it as an epilog to this story, and then contemplated it as a prolog to this storys actual sequel, a work already in progress. Finally, I decided to simply include it as the bonus...
