As its publication has been asked for, I am venturing to send it forth, deeply conscious of its lack of literary merit, but hoping it may, in some measure, give to the present generation an idea of the important place of Old St. George s in the early days of the Dominion, and of those sturdy Churchmen who laid foundations sure and steadfast, especially Dr. John Stuart, who deserves far more recognition than has yet been accorded him among the makers of Canada. The data, I think, are fairly accurate, gathered as they have been from old documents in the vaults of the Cathedral, unpublished letters of the S. P. G., Canadian Archives, the documentary history of New York, Sabines Loyalists, and personal reminiscences of old members of the congregation.
