Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Excerpt from Bird Notes, Vol. 5 My Senegal has a very individual character of his own, and shows great determination and persistence in trying to get his own way. He is extremely affectionate, but has a very hasty temper, and if spoken to harshly, gets at once into a rage, which is, however, over in a minute. He understands all I say to him, and makes me understand everything he wants either to do or to have. And that is generally the same thing every day at the same hour. For example, he is accustomed to have sopped toast every morning at breakfast, and if I do not give it to him at once, he calls me by name until he gets it. He will learn to say anything he hears a few times, and imitates the cries of all other creatures, including those of street urchins. We have had several cats since I had the bird, and he never shows any fear of them, and more than once he has played about on the floor with a cat nearly full-grown. On one occasion the cat upset the table on which his cage stood, apparently without upsetting in any way the mental equilibrium of the parrot, who was found quite calm and told us he was all right as well as he could. He knows those who are not afraid of him, and they can do what they like with him, but I never allow him to go close to those who are afraid of him, as he is likely to bite them, Of course he has bitten me many times, on occasions when I crossed him, but he has never offered to...
